The more space the children have to enjoy the activities the more fun it will be. Parties held in parks are always the best parties.

A backyard party will only work if you have lots of open space and no distractions like a trampoline.

Most parties are a mix of boys and girls. If it's an all boys or an all girls party their activities differ a little. This is because boys like their activities a bit full on while the girls simply just want to have fun

What time can you do a party? Starting anytime for 9am to 10am or at 12-30pm or anytime from 2-30pm on. Suggestion. Have the children start arriving 30 minutes before we begin so all are there for when we are booked to let the chooks loose.

Do you supply invitations? Yes. For your free party invitations click on "Chuck the Chook" in the green box to your right. You will find a pdf from which you can print 2 invites per A4 page

When choosing a park what should I look for? Definitely toilets, followed by a table, shade and a reasonably flat open area for the activities. NEVER set up near a playground as it will be a huge distraction. The further away you are from the playground the better the party will be

Do you have a Blue Card / Liability insurance? Yes

Do you supply food / prizes? No
